MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Meeting with Robert Michaels Regarding Budget Situation

1. Met with Robert Michaels, House Appropriations Committee staff, to discuss our budget situation. He advised that Mr. Mahon had talked briefly with Senator Russell by telephone. He advised that Mr. Mahon has a clear-cut view that Senator Russell plans that the Agency should receive a token cut in its budget. I also furnished certain figures on our paramilitary programs for the fiscal years 1960 through 1964 which had been requested by Representative Ford. See attached breakdown.

3. As I was leaving Mr. Michaels, I noted that Mr. Cannon was going in to visit Mr. Mahon. Presumably after their discussion Mr. Cannon placed his telephone call to the DCI of about noon today.
